GORMAN'S GRAND DEPOT OUR ANNUAL OPENING

—OF—
Women's Muslin and
Cambric Underwear

AS IN THE PAST, our efforts this year have been aimed to gather together the best of underwear that would give the greatest possible satisfaction in quality of material, carefulness of workmanship and perfection of fit.

And while the prices are as low as can possibly be afforded for such high class work, we do not enter into competition with the inferior grade of goods largely sold at seemingly low prices.

The stock now placed on exhibition is all new and fresh. No shop-worn or counter-acted goods in the lot. We want only the latest styles and shapes.

We mention today some

Special Bargains
Which cannot be duplicated
at the prices

Fine Muslin Corset Covers, 19c
Fine Cambric Corset Covers, 23c
Night Dresses, 39c
Walking Skirts, 35c
Drawers, 21c

In connection with the special bargains in Muslin Underwear, we have some unusual values

In Children's White Dresses
At 50c, 55c, 60c, 65c, 70c
Infants' Long Slips
At 25c, 30c, 35c, 40c, 45c and 50c

It is well to remember that when we advertise special bargains it is not safe to postpone examination for a single day. The reason is that all our customers are eagerly waiting, and as we positively avoid all forms of sensational advertisements it has been proven by experience that every bargain advertised is taken advantage of as it is offered; therefore, the response is prompt and large lots are sometimes sold in a few hours or days, as it may happen.

CLARK'S SUMMIT NOTES.

Sundry News Paragraphs Concerning a Breezy Locality.

CLARK'S SUMMIT, Pa., March 12.—The funeral of Mrs. Henry Kern, of Newton, was very largely attended by relatives and friends.

The boiler in the steam saw mill of Shipper & Frear, at Darbinger Corners, exploded a few days since. Fortunately no one was injured. Sawing will be delayed several weeks as a result.

Dr. Harry Dawson, of North Main avenue, Scranton, was called by telegram to visit Mrs. William Atherton.

The ladies of Clark Summit Methodist Episcopal church are becoming justly celebrated for the substantial entertainment gotten up for the benefit of the church. But the last one, called the poverty supper, was a masterpiece upon the menu as the tables fairly groined under the weight of good eatables and the treasury was replenished to the extent of over $50.

David Smith has his new house painted and ready for occupancy.

Martin Griffin has his house plastered. It will be occupied by the barber the 1st of April.

Oscar Case is building a new barn on his lot and will move to the Summit the 1st of April.

Fred Smith and John Stark each have called ready for their new houses in Highland Park.

The robin has put in an appearance, a sure harbinger of spring.

TAYLOR PARAGRAPHS.

Entertaining Gossip From the Lively Town.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

TAYLOR, Pa., March 12.—The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church will hold an ice cream and cake social at the parsonage on Thursday night.

Will Goodwin, who has been indisposed, is out again.

Dan Jones was in Moose today. On the 31st, the "Old maids tea" of the young ladies of the Presbyterian church was held at the parsonage on Thursday night.

The reception committee of the Library meets tomorrow (Tuesday) night. Mrs. Tabitha Jones, aged 83, died Sunday night after an illness of two weeks.

Mrs. Jones was a member of the Congregational church. Funeral Wednesday afternoon. Five daughters and one son survive her.

George L. Humlin, who is school director in Lackawanna township and whose term will expire in June if Taylor is a borough, has proven himself a good school educator. He will retire with the well wishes of all.

Reports got in circulation today just before the bells and whistles began to toll for dinner hour that the supreme court had reversed Judge Archbald's decision and sent the case back to Taylor. Many of those who had opposed the granting of a borough license, or a state license, for protection to our town, rushed at once to Scranton to see if such was true, but upon their arrival there found that nothing had yet been heard.

Morgan M. Williams, a well-to-do and prominent merchant of this borough, has brought suit for $10,000 damages against a commercial traveler, Patrick Padden, who represents L. D. Powers, of Cedar avenue, Scranton.

Mr. Williams store was closed one day of last week owing to the death of his sister, and he claims that Mr. Padden circulated the story that he was closed by the sheriff.

Next Saturday night an entertainment will be given at the Welsh Baptist church, at which the following programme will be rendered:

Piano Selections..... Mary T. Davis
Soprano Selection..... Mrs. Robert Lowrey
Duet..... Professors Thomas and Rosa Basco
Soprano Solo..... Joseph Loughney
Recitation..... John E. Evans
Tenor Solo..... George J. Powell
Duet..... T. Edwards and H. Evans
Recitation..... William P. Griffiths
Tenor Solo..... Professor Henry Bona

ALL ABOUT ARCHBOLD.

Events of the Day Recorded and Tensely Discussed.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

ARCHBOLD, Pa., March 12.—The Father Mathew society, a meeting held yesterday afternoon, appointed President Duffy and Messrs. John Carroll, J. H. White and Thomas Moran a committee to wait upon the Knights of Father Mathew with a view to reaching an arrangement whereby the debt now resting on Father Mathew hall might be paid. It is not known what action the knights will take on the matter. Some time ago many of the members of the latter society entertained the idea of erecting a hall of their own, but there were others who believed that one hall was sufficient for both societies. The agitation which the project of the knights awakened probably gave rise to the action of yesterday. The hall is still heavily in debt, notwithstanding the vigorous efforts of the society to remove it.

At yesterday's meeting of the Young Men's Social club the erection of their new hall was further considered and the question of its location was placed with the board of trustees. The site referred to in yesterday's TRIBUNE, the lot adjoining James P. Kearney's, on South Railroad street, will most probably be chosen since it is the most desirable the members have been able to find.

On Saturday M. J. Swift retired from business to devote his time and attention, during the coming summer at least, to the Scranton base ball team. Mr. Swift will be succeeded in business by John J. Newcomb, of Cemetery street, who will take charge at once.

A 4-year-old child of George Kraft of South Main street, was buried yesterday afternoon. The little one died on Friday after a brief illness.

Postmaster T. P. Cosgrove was appointed alternate to Delegate Schuchman, who was elected delegate from the Fourth Legislative district to the State Republican convention at Harrisburg.

JERMYN JOTTINGS.

A Democratic Club and a Case of Measles—Other Notes.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

JERMYN, Pa., March 12.—A Democratic club of twenty-four members was organized Saturday night in Enterprise hall. The following officers were elected: President, William F. Sullivan; secretary, A. Roland; treasurer, P. A. Timin.

There will be a necktie social this evening at the house of William J. Jank. The receipts of the necktie party for the benefit of the Christian Endeavor society of the Congregational church.

A large number of the members of Rushbrook Lodge, Independent Order Old Fellows, visited Olive Leaf Lodge, of Carbondale, last evening. The day's work was done by the Jermyntown, after which some time was spent socially. All returned well pleased with their trip.

Mayfield has a case of measles. There never were better opportunities for education than at present. It has been said, "Give a boy and you get an intelligent man; educate a girl and you get an intelligent family."

How often we see the truth of this! The school directors of Mayfield, about to erect additional accommodations, are doing all in their power to educate the young. When both the boys and girls are educated, then we get the highest possible good for a community.

Mr. Bliss, of Waverly, spent Sunday in town.

T. V. Bowdler, Jr., of Carbondale, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Chase, of Scott, and L. Lindley, of Scranton, were Jermyntown visitors yesterday.

Edward Woodworth, who has been confined to the house since his battle with the flu in the public school building, is pronounced out of danger by the attending physician.

Mrs. Charles Davis, of Cemetery street, visited Carbondale friends yesterday.

The funeral of Johnnie, infant son of Samuel Langston, will take place at 2 p. m. today. Interment in Rose Hill cemetery.

Miss Emma Cure, of Scranton, was the guest of her sister, Miss Anna, over Sunday.

CARBONDALE NEWS.

Current Happenings Paragraphed for Intelligent Perusal.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

CARBONDALE, Pa., March 12.—Mrs. James Nicol conducted a successful meeting in Enterprise hall at Simpson Sunday evening.

The last social under the auspices of the Baptist Christian Endeavor society will be held in the chapel tomorrow evening (Tuesday).

W. D. Frank, of Scranton, spent Sunday in this city.

Miss Flo Allen will return to her home in Forest City in the morning after enjoying several days' visit at the guest of Miss Lottie Giles, of Lincoln avenue.

Bicycles are again plentiful on our streets.

W. G. Giles, who is attending to his lumber business at Elk Grove, Pa., spent Sunday with his family in this city.

W. H. Thompson, of the new lively firm of W. H. & A. J. Thompson, is in New York, where he will purchase the necessary equipment for the live.

The funeral of Charles Miles occurred this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of his son, John O. Miles, of Darbinger Corners. Rev. T. E. Jones conducted the services. Interment was made in Maplewood cemetery. The following were the pall bearers: Nicholas Moon, W. H. Bat, John Muir, S. A. Purdy, James Thompson and Charles Avery.

Dr. John Barnett, of Scranton, was a visitor in this city today.

That Tired Feeling

All Run Down—Blood Poison Feared

Hood's Sarsaparilla Permanently Cured All Troubles.

"C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass."

"I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for seven or more years as a spring tonic. I was so run down with hard work and female weakness that I would go to bed thinking that I would not be able to get up in the morning. I have suffered severely with My Back and Limbs.

I have just finished taking five bottles and am feeling well. I do not have that tired feeling and feel better in every way. I have an excellent appetite and sleep well at night. and the limb swelled to twice its natural size. He was not able to move and was obliged to take his bed. The swellings and sores went up into his body and I feared that blood poison had set in. After taking Hood's Sarsaparilla he by paying attention to properly regulating the bowels thereby preventing a thousand and one derangements of the system which follow neglect of this precaution. Once used for this purpose, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are always in favor. They're purely vegetable and far better as a liver pill, than blue pills or calomel. Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular—not to constipate.

MISS MARY ANTHONY, of Glen Elder, Marshall Co., W. Va., writes: "Two years ago I was pale and emaciated, food fermented in my stomach. A physician pronounced my case 'catarrh of the stomach,' but he could not help me. I lived a month without solid food and when I tried to eat I would vomit. At this time I began taking Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and in two weeks I was decidedly better. I am now in good health, and never felt better in my life. I have a better color, eat more, and have no distress after eating—having gained thirteen pounds since I began taking them."
